

LBI Administration Training

LBI Review

- LBI components and functional purpose of each
- Validate installation of all modules
- Portal Integration
- Understand the purpose and benefits of EFS
- Understand the components of EFS dashboard, modules, and links

Users and Authentication

- Explain the difference between authentication and authorization
- Explain authentication for EFS
- Define roles and users
- Synchronize users and groups

Framework Services Configuration

- Configure LAL to enable DrillAround
- Define server local and time zone in System Configuration Assistant
- Describe the location of the LBI repositories

Services and Applications

- Register an application and a service
- Manage services and create new custom services

Reporting Services - Data Sources, Users, and Permissions

- Describe the different data source types
- Add a data source with an ODBC connection
- Describe user types supported by Reporting Services
- Configure FTP settings for Lawson Data Connection
- Explain Authentication source for RS
- Maintain system settings and permissions
- Describe difference between security groups and custom groups
- Create and maintain report security groups and custom groups
- Set up a link to a RS List on a dashboard

Reporting Services Configuration

- Enable DrillAround under Data Sources and from a report
- Import rights (using CSV file)
- Create and maintain lists
- Create schedules

Reporting Services Delivery

- Device terminology
- Import and configure device types
- Create and test printer and email devices
- Import devices

Smart Notification – Users and Permissions

- Maintain system permissions

Smart Notification – Settings and Configuration

- Work with System Configuration Assistant
- Work with data sources
- Work with Content
- Administration
- Work with Delivery Devices
- Work with Templates
- Create and import solution packs

Smart Notification – Scheduling and Monitoring

- Scheduling Notifications

Framework Services – Settings and Maintenance

- Perform Administration tasks with the Tools Dashboard
- Transferring ownership of content
- Import and Export Dashboards
- Work with Object Editor
- Apply LBI Updates
- Plan and Perform Backups

Troubleshooting

- Common problems
- Log Files